PDOG HELPS KAPPA PSI BETA KAPPA MEMBERS MAKE CONNECTIONS AND MEMORIES

Gifts from 77 donors on Pitt Day of Giving paid for two pharmacy students to attend their national conference

The Kappa Psi Grand Council Convention—when members of the world's oldest and largest professional pharmaceutical fraternity gather for a week of workshops, research presentations and networking—only happens every two years. And with 2021's convention postponed due to COVID, 2022 was Maggie Schmidt's last chance to attend before her graduation. But getting there is an expensive endeavor. Each attendee is responsible for their airfare, registration fee and lodging at the Arizona Grand Resort & Spa in Phoenix. For many members of Pitt's Beta Kappa chapter, who are unable to hold outside jobs due to their 40-hour rotation schedules, the costs were insurmountable.

In between revising the Fraternity's bylaws, choosing new national candidates, attending workshops and soliciting advice from graduate members, Schmidt and Saad managed to sneak in some hiking and horseback riding. "I hadn't been to that part of the country before," Schmidt said. "I saw a cactus I've never seen one, besides at Phipps (Conservatory and Botanical Gardens in Oakland)."

The chapter also picked up plenty of hardware during the convention's banquet, including a Top Performing Chapter Award, an Advocacy Award, a Grand Council Deputy Certificate of Excellence for Karen Hoang, and a Member
